Coy. Quarter-Master Sergeant TAN PIAH ENG, Chinese Company, S.V.C.

Lieutenant TAN CHOW KIM, Chinese Company, S.V.C. [No. 424/22].

No. 130.—THE following Bill introduced in the Legislative Council is published for general information:—

[Read a first time ... 23rd January, 1922.]

A BILL

AN Ordinance to amend Ordinance No. 166 (Agricultural Pests).

It is hereby enacted by the Governor of the Straits Settlements with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Agricultural Pests (Amendment) Ordinance, 1922.

Amendment of Sections 5 to 9.

2. Sections 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 of Ordinance No. 166 (Agricultural Pests)—hereinafter called the principal Ordinance—are amended by inserting the words “and premises” after the word “land” wherever it occurs.

Further Amendment of section 5 (1).

3. The words “alienated for agricultural purposes or whereon any plants are or have been cultivated” in lines 4 and 5 of section 5 (1) are repealed.

New section 9A.

4. After section 9 of the principal Ordinance the following section is inserted:—

Power of convicting Court to order action to be taken.

9A—(i) Upon the conviction of any person under section 9 or under sub-section (ii) of this section, the Court before which the conviction is had may order the convicted person to take, within a time to be fixed by the Court, the measures for failure to take which such conviction was had.

(ii) If any person fails without reasonable cause to comply with an order made under sub-section (i), he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

New sections 12A and 12B inserted.

5. After section 12 of the principal Ordinance the following two sections are inserted:—

Clearing diseased land.

12A—(i) Where it shall appear to the Director that any plant on any land is diseased and he is of opinion that it is necessary for the prevention of the spread of any pest that such land be entirely cleared of cultivation thereon or cleared of all cultivation of any particular species the Director may by notice in writing under his hand addressed to the owner or occupier of the land whereon such plant is, direct him to fell and burn or otherwise destroy within a time to be stated in the notice and to the satisfaction of the Director all cultivation of the species named in the notice upon such land.

(ii) No such notice shall be issued without the sanction in writing of the Colonial Secretary.

(iii) The action directed by a notice under sub-section (i) hereof may be enforced in the manner provided by section 8 for the enforcement of the action directed by a notice under section 6 of the principal Ordinance.

(iv) If any owner or occupier of land on whom a notice under the provisions of sub-section (i) has been served shall wilfully neglect to comply therewith he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

No. 168.—ORDINANCE NO. 135 (MUNICIPAL).

RULES made by His Excellency the Governor in Council under section 19 of Ordinance 135 (Municipal), after consultation with the Municipal Commissioners of the Municipality of Malacca.

1. These Rules (hereinafter called the Amending Rules) shall be read as supplementing and amending the Rules made by His Excellency the Governor in Council under section 45 of the Municipal Ordinance, 1896, and published in the Government Gazette on the 26th August, 1898, as Notification No. 597 (hereinafter called the Provident Fund Rules) and amended by Notification No. 1284 dated the 10th December, 1907, and the Provident Fund Rules shall as from the date of the publication of the amending Rules in the Government Gazette be deemed to have been varied accordingly but otherwise shall remain in full force.

2. From and after the date of the publication of the Amending Rules as aforesaid the amount of the Contribution of each Contributing Member shall be 10 per cent of his salary or wages instead of $7\frac{1}{2}$ per cent thereof as heretofore and Rule 6 of the Provident Fund Rules shall as from such date be read as if the figure "10" were substituted for the figure " $7\frac{1}{2}$ " therein.

3.—(a) The donation payable by the Corporation under Rule 8 of the Provident Fund Rules shall be increased from $7\frac{1}{2}$ per cent to 10 per cent of the salary or wages of each Contributing Member and this provision shall operate retrospectively from the respective dates upon which each member made his first contribution to the Provident Fund.

(b) In order to carry out the provisions of sub-clause (a) of this Rule the Corporation shall immediately after the date of the publication of the Amending Rules as aforesaid place to the credit of the account of each Contributing Member a sum equivalent to one-third of his total contributions up to and including such date.

(c) The Corporation shall also within 5 years from the date of the publication of the Amending Rules as aforesaid pay or transfer to the Provident Fund a sum equivalent to the aggregate of the sums which shall have been credited to the separate accounts of the Contributing Members under sub-clause (b) of this Rule.

4.—(1) Any Contributing Member who shall retire from the service of the Corporation after 20 years' completed continuous service may at his option leave on deposit with the Corporation the whole of the sum standing to the credit of his account at the date of his retirement including (a) his contributions, (b) the donations, and (c) the accumulated interest thereon.

(2) The Corporation shall during the lifetime of any member so retiring and leaving his share of the Fund on deposit as aforesaid pay to him interest thereon half-yearly at the rate of 10 per cent per annum.

(3) Upon the death of any such member the aggregate amount of his own contributions and of the donations with which his account shall have been credited shall be paid by the Corporation to his legal personal representative but the accumulated interest with which his account shall have been credited shall revert to and become the property of the Corporation.

(4) Provided always that, the Municipal Commissioners, if in any special case they in their discretion think fit, may extend the benefits of this Rule to members retiring after having completed less than 20 years' continuous service.

*Altered by Notification No. 22 of 6th January, 1922, to Tuesday, January 31st.

(Originally published in the Gazette of 10th November, 1921.)

No. 1785.—PROPERTY RIGHTS AND INTERESTS IN GERMANY OF BRITISH NATIONALS.

The following Notification is published for general information:—

The 1st December, 1921, has been fixed as the latest date on which claims can be submitted through the Clearing Office by British Nationals, for proceeds of liquidation of property in Germany and/or for Compensation under Articles 297 and 300 (b) of the Treaty of Versailles in respect of damage inflicted upon their property, rights and interests in Germany by the application of exceptional war measures, measures of transfer or measures of execution.

Up to that date the Controller will be prepared to receive from British Nationals claims for compensation and to present them to the German Authorities for the purpose of effecting agreements for submission to a formal judgment of the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal in order, as far as possible, to obviate the delay and expense of legal proceedings.

It will be necessary for claimants who have not thus submitted their claims by 1st December, 1921, to prosecute their own cases before the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal in accordance with the Rules of Procedure of the Tribunal which were published as Notification No. 175 in the Gazette dated 4th February, 1921 and which provide, inter alia, that memorials in support of claims should be lodged with the Tribunal before the 4th February, 1922.

Note.—This notice has no application to "Enemy debts".

No. 90.—THE following Bill about to be introduced in the Legislative Council is published for general information:—

AN Ordinance to incorporate a Financial Committee and an Executive Committee of Raffles College and to regulate their procedure.

WHEREAS a Committee was appointed by the Governor to prepare and report upon a scheme for the purpose of celebrating the Centenary in the year 1919 of the foundation of the city of Singapore and of perpetuating the memory of Sir Thomas Stamford Raffles its founder, Preamble.

AND WHEREAS the said Committee reported to the Governor on the 1st day of August, 1919, that they unanimously favoured a scheme providing for the advancement of education in the Colony and laying a secure foundation upon which a University might in the course of time be established,

AND WHEREAS the Government of the Straits Settlements declared itself to be in favour of the establishment of a College to be known as Raffles College as such centenary memorial and as the nucleus of a future university and offered certain lands as a site for such a College,

AND WHEREAS it is intended that the said College shall be established for the promotion of arts, science and learning and the provision of higher education for students without distinction of race, nationality or religion,

AND WHEREAS the Government of the Straits Settlements and the Federated Malay States and the States of Johore, Kedah and Kelantan and many corporations and firms and persons of British, Malay, Chinese and other races have subscribed funds for the equipment and endowment of such a College,

AND WHEREAS it is thought desirable to constitute and incorporate a Financial Committee to which the moneys subscribed and any investments made thereout may be transferred and to which any further subscriptions and donations may be paid and in which any immovable property hereafter granted or acquired for the purposes of the said College may be vested,

AND WHEREAS it is also desirable to constitute and incorporate an Executive Committee for the purpose of determining what steps are necessary or desirable to be taken towards the establishment of the said College and with the concurrence of the Governor of taking such steps and doing such acts as may be determined upon,

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the Governor of the Straits Settlements by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Raffles College (Financial and Executive Committees Incorporation) Ordinance, 1922.

Incorporation of "the Financial Committee of Raffles College."

2. There shall be established a body with the name and style of "The Financial Committee of Raffles College" (hereafter called "the Financial Committee") which body shall be a body incorporate having perpetual succession and a common seal with power to acquire and hold property movable or immovable, to transfer the same, to contract and to do all things necessary for or incidental to the purpose of its constitution.

Transfer of moneys and securities to the Financial Committee.

3. It shall be lawful to the Colonial Treasurer or other the person or persons in whom the moneys subscribed for the aforesaid purpose or the securities in which such moneys or any part thereof have been and are now invested to pay and transfer the same to the Financial Committee.

Constitution of the Financial Committee.

4. The following persons shall be members of the Financial Committee:—

- (a) The person for the time being discharging the duties of Principal of Raffles College.
- (b) The person for the time being discharging the duties of the Treasurer of the Straits Settlements.
- (c) Such other person or persons as the Governor may from time to time appoint to be a member or members thereof.

5. The Financial Committee shall, with the sanction of the Government, elect one of its members to be Treasurer.

Duties of Financial Committee.

6. The Financial Committee shall cause proper books of account to be kept and within two months of the close of each year the Financial Committee shall cause to be prepared a statement of their receipts and disbursements during the previous year and the same shall be subject to such audit and be published in such manner as the Governor may direct.

7. The Financial Committee shall cause a register to be kept in which shall be entered full particulars of all donations to the College including the names of the donors and the special conditions, if any, subject to which any donation was given.

8. The Financial Committee shall have the entire management of the property vested in it.

9. It shall be the duty of the Financial Committee—

- (a) To invest the moneys which shall become vested in it or such part thereof as it shall from time to time think fit in or upon such securities as are for the time being sanctioned by law for the investment of trust funds with power from time to time to vary any such investments.
- (b) To deposit any moneys for the time being uninvested with any bank either upon fixed deposit or upon current account.
- (c) To expend out of moneys in its hands (with power to realise any investments for the purpose) such moneys as they may be directed from time to time to expend by the Executive Committee of Raffles College hereinafter constituted, provided that every such direction shall be in writing and signed for and on behalf of the Executive Committee by the Principal of Raffles College or by the Treasurer of the Straits Settlements and any direction in writing so signed shall be conclusive evidence in favour of the Financial Committee that the direction therein contained is the direction of the Executive Committee.

10. In case any movable or immovable property not consisting of securities of a class for the time being sanctioned by law for the investment of trust funds shall become vested in the Financial Committee, the Financial Committee shall at its discretion either retain such property in its then condition or sell and convert the same into money.

11. There shall also be established a body with the name and style of "The Executive Committee of Raffles College" (herein called "The Executive Committee") which body shall be a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal with power to contract and do all things necessary for or incidental to the purpose of its constitution.

Incorporation of "The Executive Committee of Raffles College."

Constitution
Executive Committee.

12. The following persons shall be members of the Executive Committee:—

- (a) The person for the time being discharging the duties of Principal of Raffles College.
- (b) The person for the time being discharging the duties of the Treasurer of the Straits Settlements.
- (c) The person for the time being discharging the duties of Director of Education.
- (d) Such other persons, not being at any one time less than five as the Governor may from time to time appoint to be members thereof.

Duties of the Executive Committee.

13. It shall be the duty of the Executive Committee—

- (a) To advise the Governor in all matters connected with the inauguration and constitution of Raffles College.
- (b) To direct the Financial Committee to expend such sums of money as the Executive Committee may from time to time decide to expend either for the acquisition of any property movable or immovable or otherwise for the purposes of the intended College. The assent of the Governor or the Colonial Secretary in writing to all such expenditure shall first be obtained by the Executive Committee.
- (c) With the assent of the Governor or the Colonial Secretary to enter into such contracts and to do such acts and things as may be deemed necessary for the purposes of the inauguration for the erection of college buildings, the preparation of grounds and the acquisition of movable or immovable property and the engagement of staff.

14. The Executive Committee shall cause a record to be kept of all its proceedings, and shall in or before the month of November in each year prepare an estimate of the anticipated expenditure during the following year and submit the same to the Governor.

Contracts entered into by Executive Committee.

15. Every contract entered into by the Executive Committee shall in order to be binding upon it be reduced into writing.

16. Every such contract shall—

- (a) If it involves the expenditure of a sum exceeding $1,000 be signed by the Principal of Raffles College or by the Treasurer of the Straits Settlements.
- (b) If it involves the expenditure of a sum exceeding $10,000 be sealed with the Common seal of the Executive Committee in manner hereinafter provided.

17. The following regulations shall apply both to the Financial Committee and to the Executive Committee :—

- (a) At all meetings of a Committee the Principal of Raffles College or in his absence the Treasurer of the Straits Settlements and in the absence of both a member chosen by the members present or by a majority of them shall preside as Chairman.
- (b) Every question which comes before a Committee shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present but in the case of the Finance Committee no question shall be decided unless three members at least and in the case of the Executive Committee five members at least including in either case the Principal of Raffles College or the Treasurer of the Straits Settlements are present at the time of decision. Regulations applicable to the Financial and Executive Committees.
- (c) The Chairman and every member of Committee shall have one vote and in case of the equality of votes the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.
- (d) The Common seal of a Committee may be affixed to any instrument by the Principal of Raffles College or the Treasurer of the Straits Settlements and any one other member of that Committee who shall sign their names to such instrument in token of their presence.
- (e) The Governor shall have power to remove any member of a Committee.
- (f) On the death, inability to act, resignation or absence from the Settlement of Singapore for more than three months of any member of a Committee appointed by the Governor hereunder such member shall ipso facto cease to be a member of such Committee.
- (g) A Notification appearing in the Government Gazette of the appointment of any person as Principal of Raffles College or as Colonial Treasurer or as Director of Education as a member of either Committee or of the removal of any such member or of the fact that any such member has ceased to be a member shall be conclusive evidence of such fact.
- (h) No act or proceeding of either Committee shall be invalidated by reason of any irregularity in the convening of the meeting at which such act or proceeding was determined upon or held or by reason of the absence of any member from the Settlement or by reason of any vacancy in such Committee.

- (i) The minutes of every meeting of a Committee shall be conclusive evidence of all resolutions adopted and acts done at such meeting provided that such minutes shall have been signed by the Chairman as having been confirmed at a subsequent meeting of the same Committee.

OBJECTS AND REASONS.

A large sum of money having been subscribed for the purpose of establishing a College in Singapore as a Centenary Memorial, it is considered desirable to incorporate a Financial Committee in whom such monies shall be vested and an Executive Committee in whom power shall be vested to enter into contracts and take other necessary steps for the establishment of Raffles College.

GOVERNMENT NOTIFICATION.

THERE are vacancies for Overseers (Grade III) in the Public Works Department.

The initial salary of Grade III Overseers is $100 per month rising by annual increments of $5 to $125 per mensem with a temporary allowance at the present time.

Applicants should be able to superintend the construction of small works and the execution of repairs and alterations to buildings, to measure up work, take out quantities and prepare estimates.

The appointment will in the first instance be for a period of one year at the conclusion of which if found suitable the persons selected will be placed on the Permanent staff of the Department.

Overseers on the Permanent Establishment are eligible for promotion to the Senior Subordinate Branch with salaries ranging from $250 to $400 per month, promotion being by merit.

Applications in applicants' own handwriting, accompanied by copies of recent testimonials, should be forwarded to the Colonial Engineer, Public Works Department, Singapore. [No. 11677/21.]

J. H. W. PARK,
Colonial Engineer, S. S.

TENDERS INVITED.

TENDERS are invited for the sole right to cut and remove mangrove firewood from a demarcated area of 30 acres situated in the Seletar Forest Reserve for a period of one year.

The conditions are that all firewood removed from the area shall be delivered for consumption within the town of Singapore, that no mangrove tree under $3\frac{1}{2}$ inches in diameter at the springing of the stem be felled and that all trees other than mangrove growing on the area shall also be felled when felling of mangrove occurs. The successful tenderer will be required to sign a contract, a copy of which may be seen on application to the Office Assistant, Land Office, and to pay half the purchase-money on date of signing the contract and half after three months from that date.

Tenders should be sealed and addressed to the Collector of Land Revenue, Singapore, and will be received by him up to the 17th February, 1922.

Intending tenderers must deposit a sum of Dollars Twenty-five with the Collector of Land Revenue without which no tender will be recognised.

In the event of any tender being accepted the deposit will be refunded on the signing of the contract, and, if any tenderer whose tender is accepted refuses to enter into such contract, the deposit will be forfeited.

The Government does not bind itself to accept the highest, or any tender.

LAND OFFICE,
SINGAPORE, 24th January, 1922. [L. O. No. 79/22.]

J. LORNIE,
Collector of Land Revenue.

TENDERS will be received at the Colonial Secretary's Office, up to noon of the 17th February, 1922, for the erection of the first portion of the Nurses' Quarters at Sepoy Lines, General Hospital.

Every person applying for a form of Tender will be required to deposit the sum of one hundred Dollars with the Colonial Treasury and forms will only be issued on production of the receipt for this deposit.

In the event of any person whose tender has been accepted failing within ten days from the date of acceptance to enter into the necessary contract or deposit the security required under the Contract for its due fulfilment, the sum deposited will be forfeited to the Crown.

Plans and Specifications may be seen, and printed forms of tender with all particulars obtained at the Post Office Architect's Office, Temporary Post Office Buildings, Collyer Quay, Singapore, any day between the hours of 10 A.M. and 4 P.M. (Saturdays and Sundays excepted.)

Tenders must be addressed to the Colonial Secretary and labelled as specified above for the work, and they must be on the printed forms which can be obtained on application to the Chief Clerk, Public Works Department.

The Government does not bind itself to accept the lowest, or any, tender.

SINGAPORE, January, 1922. [No. 667/22.]

OFFERS will be received at the Colonial Secretary's Office, up to noon of the 3rd February, 1922, for the demolition of the Old Post Office, Master Attendant's Office and Surveyor of Ships' Office, etc., between Cavanagh Bridge, and Anderson Bridge and Singapore Club.

N.B.—Contractor to remove the materials at his own expense and retain same.

Every person applying for a form of Offer will be required to deposit the sum of One Hundred Dollars with the Colonial Treasury, and forms will only be issued on production of the receipt for this deposit.

In the event of any person whose offer has been accepted failing within ten days from the date of acceptance to enter into the necessary contract or to pay the amount of offer to the Post Office Architect before the contract is signed the sum deposited will be forfeited to the Crown.

Form of Contract and Specification may be seen, and printed forms of offer with all particulars obtained at the Post Office Architect's Office, Temporary Post Office Buildings, Collyer Quay, Singapore, any day between the hours of 10 A.M. and 4 P.M. (Saturdays and Sundays excepted.)

Offers must be addressed to the Colonial Secretary and labelled as specified above for the work, and they must be on the printed forms which can be obtained on application to the Chief Clerk, Public Works Department.

The Government does not bind itself to accept the highest, or any, offer.
